Check out these two photos of stylish supermodel Gigi Hadid hanging at a Coachella party and walking the festival grounds:

Notice anything similar? That's right, folks, she remixed her necklace—and attached it to her shorts!!! (From what we can see, she must have hooked it onto the belt loops). It's just so epically genius, our minds are blown. Yes, Gigi always looks amazing, but we've really got to hand it to her on this one. Major creativity points scored. Bonus: We found the exact necklace (it's Express (<http://www.express.com/>)) for you here (<http://www.express.com/clothing/layered+coin+and+chain+bib+necklace/pro/0261028/cat360029>)!
